“ To the Thompson family I share heartfelt sympathy. Losing a loved one can be so hard to come to grips with. We sometimes wonder, where is my loved one , and will I ever see them again. Jesus let's us know the condition of the dead. When his good friend Lazarus died he told his diciples: "Lazarus our friend has fallen asleep, but I am traveling there to awaken him. The disciples then said to him: "Lord, if he is sleeping, he will get well. Jesus, however, had spoken about his death. But they imagined he was speaking about taking rest in sleep. Then Jesus said to them plainly: Lazurus has died." John 11:11-14 So we see that Jesus compared death to being asleep, but he also said that he was going there to wake him up. So that explanation by our saviour should bring us much comfort, just knowing that our loved ones are asleep, and one day soon he will awaken them from the deep sleep of death. He promises at John 11:25, "Most truly I say to you, the hour is coming, and it is now, when the dead will hear the voice of the Son of God, and those who have paid attention will live." May you find comfort in knowing your loved one will live again.

“ To family and friends may you find comfort in God's word the Bible at Isaiah 61:1,2 it says "God will bind up the brokenhearted and comfort all those who mourn."
