

Bessie C. Cox

August 10, 1937 - January 16, 2009

Bessie C. Cox, daughter of the late Mack Daniel Cox and Sally Pat (Bardsdale) Cox, was born on August 10, 1937 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on January 16, 2009, after a sudden illness. She received her education in the Baltimore City Public School System. For most of her life she did domestic work. For a small part of her life she worked at Protor and Gamble from where she retired. In her spare time she enjoyed completing crossword puzzles while listening to gospel music. She was a member at Memorial Baptist Church for more than fifty years. Bessie was a very caring, thoughtful, and loving person. Before her illness she was a very strong and energetic person. She was always there for her loved ones in their time of need. She was like the family nurse; there for us during births, surgeries, sicknesses, and injuries. When someone in the family needed help with cleaning and straightening up their house, she was there. When a family member needed shelter, she was there. When a family member needed a smile, her's was there. When a family member needed a hospital visit, she was there. When a family member needed company to run errands, she was there. When a family member needed a sweet potato pie, rice pudding, or potato salad, she was there. When a family or friend needed to know how to spell a word, she was there. She leaves to mourn: her sister, Darthaea Davis; two daughters, Ivy Dupree and Fern Countess; two sons-in-law, Van Dupree and Charles Countess; seven grandchildren, Adrian Cox-Settles, Melvin Cox, Teon Cox, Johnny Cox, Katrina Lowder, Colby Davis, and Jasmine Countess;

two grandsons in-law, Billy Settles, Jr. and Raymond Lowder, Jr.; thirteen great grandchildren; cousins, nieces, and a host of other relatives and friends

“ Please accept my heartfelt condolences for the passing of your beloved Bessie. Death is so hurtful and so unfair to the family. Jehovah God never desired this pain for us. This is why he sent us his beloved son, Jesus, so that everyone exercising faith in him might not be destroyed, but have everlasting life. John 3:16. One day he promises that he will swallow up death forever, and certainly wipe the tears from all faces. Isaiah 25:8. One day he promises that we will see our loved ones again, because PSalm 68:20 lets us know that he is the God of saving acts, and he knows the ways out from death. Also at John 5:28,29 he promises that all those in the memorial tombs will hear his (Jesus's) voice and come out of those tombs. May the bible be a great source of comfort to you, and may the hope of the ressurection sustain and strengthen you to cope with your loss. I would like to share with you how Jehovah's purpose will come about, so please contact me at my e-mail address. Thank you and take care.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. 1 Corinthians 15:26 lovingly reveals that our "enemy death" is to be destroyed. Also, Acts 24:15 declares "there is going to be a resurrection". May you receive much comfort and strength from this wonderful hope found in the Bible.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ I was Ms. Bessie's next door neighbor and was a pleasure to be next door to her. She was so kind and i really felt safe next door to her. I am really going to miss her, especially riding the bus with her from East Baltimore. May God forever shine his light on your family.##imported-begin##William Poole##imported-end##
