

Bessie DuBose

January 15, 1939 - May 29, 2020

Bessie L. Dubose was born to the late Willard & Mary Jane Robinson on January 15th, in Darlington, South Carolina. She departed in Lamar, South Carolina where she enjoyed playing basketball.

Bessie L. Dubose was a fun loving character who always had comforting words for her family and friends. She loved to spend her time playing card games during family gathering. She was a strict and stern woman who worked hard to raise her children and maintain work Bessie retired from Towson University in Baltimore, Maryland. Her loving, nurturing, and playful character kept her family smiling and there was never a dull moment when in her presence.

There was never a doubt that her love was unconditional. In 1954, Bessie met and fell in love with John Lynn Dubose and they were married in Darlington, South Carolina. In this union they shared seven beautiful daughters. Bessie took pride in raising her daughters and was always very protective of her family.

Bessie leaves to cherish her memory, her husband John Lynn Dubose, daughters Betty Jean Mills (Ronald Mills), Patricia Ann Brown (Gary Brown), Linette Bennett (Darren Bennett), Sandra Dubose, Tammy Dubose, fifteen grandchildren, twenty great-grandchildren, four great-great grandchildren, two sister-in-laws, two brother-in-laws, and an abundance of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

She was preceded in death by her parents; two daughters, Christine Mills and Carolyn Dubose; two grandchildren, Laquana and Randy.
