

Bessie Jean Slade Robinson

January 6, 1937 - January 2, 2002

A light no longer shines at 2663 W. Park Drive because our Lord and Savior decided to come and take Bessie Jean Slade Robinson to live in His kingdom. Jean, as she was fondly called, slept away on Wednesday, January 2, 2002. She was born in the southeastern part of North Carolina in the City of Greenville to the late Chester and Marion Elizabeth Slade in the year of 1937. She attended and graduated from C.M. Eppes High School in Greenville, North Carolina. Upon her graduation, she moved to Baltimore, Maryland with her mother. She became employed at the Social Security Administration. She was a diligent worker and was loved by her employees and co-workers. She had to retire due to her illness. She was a member of Whitestone Baptist Church, where she served on the Hospitality Committee. She later became a member of the New Shiloh Baptist Church. She leaves to mourn their loss: a loving daughter, Patricia Elizabeth Harris; five grandchildren Derrick, Tiffany, Fallon, Damien and Dominic Dorkins; two great-grandchildren; devoted son-in-law, Robbie Harris; four aunts, Mrs. Olivia Willie of Baltimore, Md., Mrs. Pattie M. Berry of Baltimore, Md., Mrs. Lottie L. Deloatch of Greenville, N.C. and Rev. Dr. Maggie Mallory of Philadelphia, Pa.; one uncle, Thomas Berry of Baltimore, Md.; many cousins, and a host of other relatives and friends. Our dear, dear Jean, it was not foreseen that you would slip away from us so soon, We loved you first, but God loved you more, One day, we too shall open that door. Lovingly submitted, The Family
