

Bessie J. Johnson

July 29, 1931 - January 28, 2016

Bessie J. Johnson was the third child born to the late George O. Johnson and his wife Dora on July 29, 1931 in Baltimore, MD.

Early Wednesday morning, January 28, 2016, God in his infinite wisdom saw Bessie was getting tired and the road was getting rough and the hills too hard to climb, he reached from Heaven and extended his arms welcoming her into her Kingdom. On that morning Bessie got her wings.

Bessie was educated in the Baltimore City School System. Along with supporting her family she worked various jobs ultimately retiring professionally as a housekeeper in 1984.

She loved her family selflessly, including stepping in to nurture and raise six of her grandchildren and her daughters, Patricia and Darlene's untimely deaths. All while remaining devoted and loyal to her son Raymond and her youngest grandson, Raymond Jr. Her first grandson George began calling her Nanny as a young child. As a result, every grandchild and their friends affectionately referred to her as Nanny.

Bessie never allowed anything or anyone to get her down. She possessed an inner strength and didn't hold anything back, good or bad. Even in her last days she remained independent and supporting to all those around her. She will be truly missed.

She was preceded in death by her two daughters, Patricia and Darlene; eight siblings, George O., Mamie, Viola, Jack, Mathew, James, Harry and Deloris.

Bessie leaves to cherish her memories: her devoted son, Raymond and daughter-in-law, Paulette; two brothers, Charles and Joe; seven grandchildren, George, Candice, Tasha, Thedius, Nikki, Dazsawn, and Raymond, Jr. She had five great-grandchildren, four great-great children and multiple generations of nieces, nephews and friends.
