

Bettie Jean Brown

July 31, 1947 - February 17, 2013

Bettie J. Brown, daughter of the late Willie Commodore and Curlie Mae Commodore was born on July 31, 1947 in Baltimore, Maryland. She received her formal education in the Baltimore City Public School System.

In 1966 Bettie met and began dating the love of her life, Charles E. Brown. In 1989 Charles and Bettie were united in Holy Matrimony. They were inseparable love birds; always together.. you never saw one without the other. She took great pride in having such a good family man and she was his faithful helpmate. From this special union two families were joined together. They were blessed with seven children who Bettie Nurtured with unconditional love, guidance, wisdom and home cooking. Amongst the many dishes that were prepared, she was known for making her signature down home rice and greens that made you want to “smack your Momma” Betty also shared a special for her baby “Rockie “ a chilwawa that she made sure was cared for just as much as her family.

Bettie enjoyed life with others and was truly a people person.“ To know her was to love her”.....She loved spending time with her family and friends., Everyone knew her affectionately as Mrs. Betty Boop. Again, I say “to know her was to love her.” She was known as a sweet, loving, and caring person, sometimes settled, but also a firecracker. She was the “ROCK” who held the family together. Fiery and feisty never holding any punches. Bettie was one who would always tell the truth about how she felt, whether you liked it or not you just accepted it and .kept it moving . This “little lady,” with eyes that would look right through you often gave the impression of having a hard shell but would smother everyone who entered her presence with love.

She had a unique quality of making everyone feel “special” she loved everyone and everyone loved her. At the end of the day we knew what she said was fact, wisdom and out of love ...why wouldn't we go to her everything! Bettie's list of friends reads like a “Who 's Who's registry because she always kept it real! Everyone loved Mrs. Bettie Boop! We will miss her kind heart words of wisdom and most importantly her smile and exuberant laugh.

On Sunday, February 17, 2013, God in his infinite wisdom, suddenly and gently took Bettie Jean Brown into his loving arms .where she is now making heaven tremendously missed by her loving family and friends alike. That twinkle in her eyes and the wave of her hands will resonate forever.

Bettie leaves to cherish fond memories .her husband, Charles E. Brown; seven children, Curlie Jones (Ruben), Warren Commodore, Anita Smith (Eric), Lamont Brown (Kendra), Charles Brown, Jr. Vorcey and Andre(Angela); one brother, Gerald Commodore. (Tina); one sister , Annette one mother-in-law, preceded in death Etta Brown; two brother-in-laws, McKeever Brown Ezekiel Brown, Jr.(Patricia); one sister-in-law, Vernel McClean of South Carolina; three sister-in-laws preceded her in death ; Mary Lee Stancil, Helen Minter and Annie Brown; thirteen grandchildren, one grandson (preceded her in death); twenty four great-grandchildren; a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives, two very special friends Joseph Markowitz, and hazel Wooten and many friends.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 4yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!

“ While Jesus was on earth, he showed that he is able to resurrect the dead. On one occasion, he resurrected a 12-year-old girl. Mark 5:42 states that her parents “were beside themselves with great ecstasy.” Under the rule of his Kingdom, the heavenly King Jesus Christ will resurrect untold numbers of people to life here on earth, but under peaceful and righteous conditions. (Acts 24:15; 2 Peter 3:13) Imagine the great ecstasy when the dead come back to life and are reunited with their loved ones!

To the Brown family I hope that your hurt will pass quickly but your heart will always keep the feeling of love that Bettie had for you all. I know it will be hard but never forget the smile that she always shared and the steadfast attitude Bettie had with us all, strong and straight forward. From Miss Bettie's Towson family Glenda Pierce and Carla Kelly. You will miss you always, love to you all.
