

Bettie Snead Gamble

April 17, 1950 - June 17, 2013

Bettie Snead Gamble, of Richmond, Virginia was born on April 17, 1950 to the late Earl J. and Pattie Lee Gamble. However, on June 17, 2013 the heavenly angels sent out a call and the sweet sound of peace glided a whisper into our beloved Bettie's ear. Peacefully she transitioned to be with her departed family members – siblings, Louis, Lydia, Leona, Robert, Ruth, James, Camilla, Vivian, Earl Gamble Jr., Betinna Gamble and Johnnie G. Slay and daughter, Tammie Evette.

She was baptized at St. Joseph's Catholic Church where she accepted the Lord and stood strong in faith. Bettie started her early education at Vandevyer Catholic School and later graduated from Richmond Public Schools. She grew to become a woman with one of the biggest hearts and smiles sheltering many and loving many more.

Bettie has touched the lives of family and friends in some small way throughout her sixty-three years, yet very memorable life. Bettie touched the lives of many people with her smile, generosity, and her sense of humor.

Because of the wonderful love she shared, she will never be forgotten and will always be in our hearts. We are so fortunate to have had her in our lives and we feel empty without her. Bettie was a born leader, had an independent spirit and was a woman of strength. She was a lover of flowers, plants and was always the life of the party.

Left to cherish her precious memories is her two loving sons, DonYel H.E. Gamble and Adrian JéVon Burgess; second mother, Lucille “mamma” Pressley; Ganny babies, Shaquille Ward, Narvel Baltimore and Jazmyne Bunn; godchildren, Sabrina Harris-Taylor (Rodney), Rashedah Caleb, Irene Sykes, Daryle Sykes and Xarviar Cooper; one brother, Edward Gamble (Gladys); two sisters, Lessie Gamble and Earlee Johnson; devoted nieces and nephews, Darlene Jackson, Earl Gamble III, Lamont Gamble, Tara Gamble and Nina Moody; a great host of cousins; several devoted friends, Charlene Taggart, Melinda Mansfield (Louis), Derenda Roach (Eric), Joan Seldon (Kenneth), Janice Jordan, Andrew and Iantha Burgess, Doris (Sonny) Robinson, Patricia Hayes, Gladys Gamble and Queen Hayes; a great host of friends, family and loved ones.

“ Hello to the family of Bettie Snead Gamble. To experience the lost of a loved one can be a truly devastating time period of confusion, anger and sadness. Death is a state of which the person is "conscious of nothing at all" (Ecclesiastes 9:5)--meaning their spirits do not transform to spiritual creatures to haunt the living. A question to be asked is what about heaven and hell? Heaven is reserved for 144,000 anointed ones who will rule with Jesus Christ in Heaven, "And I heard the number of those who were sealed, a hundred and forty-four thousand, sealed out of every tribe of the sons of Israel" (Revelation 7:4). Hell however is a place that does not truly exist. " He that does not love has not come to know God, because God is love" (1 John 4:8) the teachings of a fiery destruction dishonors Jehovah our God because it goes against his loving nature and teachings...he does not wish to see any of his creations destroyed like father would not like to see his son die before his eyes. That is why those who are not apart of the 144,000 heavenly selected group have a earthly hope. The will be a resurrection of the death by Jesus Christ death that gave all sinful humans a hope to live in a paradise earth. (1 Corinthians 1:20). "That there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous" (Acts 24:15). Death will be no more (Revelation 21 :4), lame ones will walk again (Isaiah 35:6), blind ones will see (Isaiah 35:6), the sick will be healed (Isaiah 33:24) and no one will ever starve again (Psalm 72:16). In the meantime however please pray to Jehovah, "the God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3) for comfort through this tough time.
