

Betty Ann Lewis

May 17, 1951 - May 21, 2002

Betty Ann Lewis was born on May 17, 1951, the daughter of the late Lawson and Adele Jackson, in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on May 21, 2002. Betty Ann received her education in the Baltimore City Public School System. At a very early age she accepted God as her Savior guided by a very devout and loving mother. Throughout the trials and tribulations of her life, Betty's faith in the Lord never wavered. Betty was a loving and outspoken person, who loved to be around and care for family and friends. In great sadness and much love she will be greatly missed. Betty Ann leaves to cherish her memory: two children, Debora Jackson and Elgene Lewis III; three grandchildren, George Daniel Haight III, Marcus Antoine Gregory and Shawn D. Jackson, Jr.; three aunts, Mary Smith, Myrtle Pope and Ruth Jackson; one uncle, John Jackson of Anniston, Alabama; a very special and devoted friend, Edward Ford; a best friend she referred to as her sister, Ms. Mildred Abel; a host of cousins friends. Mama, not only were you my mother, you were also my best friend, I will always love you. I enjoyed and loved the time God loaned you to me. Just because you are not present on earth, doesn't mean you are not present in my heart. You will always be here for me, Mama. Have a good rest and I will see you soon. Love, Your Only Daughter, Beady

“ Sometimes words just are not enough to take away our grief, so we rely on God for help and strength in our belief. May He uplift you greatly, take the sorrow that you bear, than comfort you with healing in the safety of His care... May God's love comfort you at this difficult time.###imported-begin###The March Family and Staff###imported-end###
