

Betty Charles Aycox Taylor

January 31, 1939 - April 15, 2018

Mrs. Betty Charles Aycox Taylor was born to the late Charlie Aycox and Goldie Ann Phoenix Aycox on January 31 in Cameron, Texas. The oldest of 6 children, Betty was a graduate of O.J. Thomas High School.

After graduating high school Betty relocated to Brooklyn, New York where she met and married her husband, Lawrence J. Taylor, who preceded her in death.

Betty, was a homemaker who later returned to school to get her certificate to teach Pre-K and Kindergarten, she worked at Columbus Ave School in Freeport New York. She taught for over 40 years.

She received Christ at an early age and was baptized at Cameron Grove Baptist Church in Cameron, Texas. Betty later transferred her membership to New Day Church of Christ and when she moved to the East End of Richmond, she became a member and eventually "Mother" of the Elohim Christian Outreach Center. At ECOC mother supported a myriad of ministries and was a founding leader in the development of A Child is Born child development center.

Mother Betty C. Taylor went from labor to reward on Sunday, April 15, 2018 around 1:30 PM. She was inpatient hospice at Memorial Regional Medical Center. Mother had seven brothers and eight sisters, Preston Aycox, Bruce Glenn Aycox, Eugene Aycox, Willard Aycox, Edward Lee Aycox , Clarence Aycox, Charlie Belle Leggett, Lovie Lee Rhone, Irene Simmons, Margaret Reeves, Mary Jo Burroughs and Ruth Bmton, who preceded her in death.

She leaves behind children "Belinda" Lynn, Lawrence Jr. (Wanda) who preceded his mother in death, Gwendolyn (Timothy) and Cynthia; Siblings, Linda Stevens of Ledbetter, TX, Emma Aycox of Bryan, TX and Brother Harvard Ray Aycox of Houston, TX. Mother also leaves behind grandchildren Ashanti (Elmer), Nia (Don), Ellis, Rebekah Nyah, Tenekia, Thaddeus, Sincere and Charnelle. She leaves behind 3 great grandchildren and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends. Mother, Teacher, Counselor, Friend, Healer, Believer, Diva.

Mother was so much to so many, but mainly a servant of the Lord, who loved the Altar of the church where she allowed God to use her to bring forth life and love of education. We thank and honor God for the life of Mother Betty Charles Aycox Taylor.
