

Betty Jean Bailey

July 13, 1946 - June 13, 2016

Betty Jean Bailey, daughter of the late Ellen Tillman and Melvin Bailey was born on July 13, 1946 in Mayo, Maryland. She was adopted and raised by Rev. Richard and Buena Ball. She departed this life on June 13, 2016 after battling cancer.

She received her education at Arundel High School in Anne Arundel County and attended Bowie State University. She then worked for the government in Fort Meade, MD until she retired. Betty then became an educator in Anne Arundel County and Baltimore City Public Schools volunteering as a teacher's aide at Westport Elementary School.

Betty loved the LORD, singing and playing the piano at Macedonia United Methodist Church and at Unity Tabernacle Baptist Church in Westport where she sang on the choir and directed. Betty enjoyed reading and studying the bible, playing puzzles, watching her favorite shows such as Family Feud and Jeopardy. She loved to socialize and converse with others. She will certainly be missed.

She leaves to mourn: her children, Weldon Barber, Stacie Bailey and Carla Griffin; brothers and sisters, Melvin Bailey, Walter Bailey, Robert Bailey, Ella Mae Johnson, Peggy Bailey and Ada Bailey; adoptive sisters, Mary English, Thelma Forte, Glenda Brown and Doris Boston; grandchildren, Darin Sympton, Anntionette Scott and Briana Hubbard; great-grandchildren, Donya Rigby, Damauri Sympton and Cameron Cross; nieces and nephews; and a host of other relatives and friends.
