

Betty A. Coleman

July 5, 1948 - October 25, 2015

On October 25, 2015, God smiled and Betty Ann Coleman, better known as, "Betty" made her transition from this earthly home to a home that is forever free from sickness, sorrow, pain and death.

Betty was born in Baltimore, MD to the late Vanderbilt and Florence Coleman. She was educated in the Baltimore City Schools. She also continued her education at the Baltimore Learning Center and graduated from Literacy Works, Inc. on June 11, 2015.

Betty loved Providence and her church family. She grew up in the old Providence Baptist Church with her loving family.

Preceding her in death was her sister, Florence Loretta Ross and one brother, Vanderbilt Nathaniel Coleman. To celebrated her life and cherish their precious memory, Betty leaves: one sister, Jennifer Smith of Baltimore, MD; one brother-in-law, Eric Smith; one aunt, Helen Lewis of Baltimore, MD; one nephew, Bernard Page of Harrisburg, PA and Linda Smith, who she considered "her daughter" and a host of other relatives and friends.
