

Betty D. Beasley

January 28, 1914 - August 7, 2002

On Wednesday, August 7, 2002, Betty Davis Beasley departed this life for her place in heaven. Betty was born in Hamlet, North Carolina, the sixth child January 28, 1914 to the late Thomas a. and Victoria Mumford Davis. There Betty attended primary school at the Waymon Chapel Community School and Capital High School. After the death of her parents, much to the encouragement and support of her oldest brother, Arrie Davis, she and some of her siblings moved to Towson, Maryland; where she joined St. James Methodist Church. She and her family took up residency in Govans, Maryland where she met her husband for seventy years, Joseph. Betty responded with the joy of birthing four children, Glenna, Gloria, Carolyn and Joseph Junior. Along with care and household responsibilities, time was given to the Pleasant Hope Baptist Church that praised her meritorious services: Sunday school work, Junior and Senior Missionary Sanctuary Choir and church enhancement programs. At the close of her labors of love, she revered membership at the Walbrook Trinity Presbyterian Church in West Baltimore, and ordained Deaconess, United Women member and World Day of Prayer Booster. Until retirement, Betty worked in the Baltimore City Special Programs at the William S. Baer School for the physically challenged. She attended Carver Vocational High School cultivating skills as a seamstress and dressmaker. Betty is survived by her husband, "Joe", three children, Glenna, Carolyn, and Joseph Jr.; one sister, Ruth Beasley; eight grandchildren nine great grandchildren, two great great grandchildren, two brothers-in-law, four sisters-in-law, and a host of nieces, nephews, and friends. Betty will be remembered for her random acts of kindness, caring availability, patience and generosity. Those who knew her can never forget the way she sorts and put together fitting words of inspiration, spoken with true passion. Her journey was one of fulfillment and purpose.

Tribute Wall

“ Betty D. Beasley

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ Healing happens slowly over weeks and months and years and even then, there will be days when memories call fresh tears. A song, a scent, or photograph keeps your heart in touch; with all that you so treasured in the one you miss so much.##imported-begin##The March Family and Staff##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ We share in your sorrow at this time. May GOD's blessings be with you at your time of loss.##imported-begin##Charles L. Brown, Jr., Carl N. Brown, and Ronald Brown##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Love you and miss you and think about you always, Grandma.##imported-begin##Love-leigh Beasley##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM