

Betty J. Dunnock

November 5, 1948 - April 3, 2016

Our beloved Betty Jean Dunnock, "Bett" as she was called; daughter of the late Eloise Wall and Willie Bennett, was born November 5, 1948 in Anson, North Carolina. Bett departed her earthly life on April 3, 2016.

Bett later moved to Baltimore City in 1966, where she attended Poly-Western High School. Prior to graduation Bett met the love of her life Samuel Dunnock Jr. (Kit). The two were joined in holy matrimony on August 29, 1969 and from this union, three children were born.

Bett, attended Baltimore City and Howard County College, where she received her certification as a nursing assistant. She later held numerous nursing assistant jobs throughout Baltimore City.

Bett, was not only known for her caring heart but she was also known for her dominant cooking skills. She cooked large dinners on many joyful events, which brought numerous family and friends to the table. No one would disagree; she was definitely our personal Betty Crocker with lots of soul. She cooked, she loved, she celebrated life to the fullest with her darling "Kit" who was always by her side. There was never a dull moment when Bett and her "Sassy Sister" would gather for those epic times that will forever be in our hearts. Bett's family was her most precious jewel. Bett spoiled and doted on her grandchildren every chance she could. There were many late night conversations, back room movie nights, backyard cookouts, pool parties and trips to the beach, which were special times for Bett, Kit, and the kids. So many cherished memories; she will always be remembered by her famous quote "And you can take that to the bank".

Preceding her death are: her sister, Patricia Harvey; brother-in-law; Reginald Dunnock, and granddaughter Cambria McCullough.

Bett is survived by: her husband, Samuel Dunnock, Jr. "Kit"; three children, Cheryl A. Dunnock, Samuel "Mann" Dunnock, III and Christopher "Jabbar" Dunnock; four sisters, Shirley Brown (John Brown), Margaret Lavender (Herman Lavender), Barbara Johnson (Maurice Johnson) and Marcia Bennett; one brother, Michael Bennett; two sisters-in-law, Samuel H. Spicer, Berlin Dunnock, Daniel Dunnock; two grandchildren, Doren Chapman and Shaidai Dunnock; two great grandchildren, Lilly McCullough and soon to make his appearance, "CJ" Cameron Jay Chapman; three aunts, Lillie Smith, Bessie Wall, Esther Jones; three uncles, Spurgeon Wall, Willie Wall, Jasper Wall; and a host of family and friends.
