

Betty Gamble

May 24, 1946 - August 15, 2013

Betty Lou Gamble, daughter of the late Booka Tee and Dorender Walker was born on May 24, 1946 in Clarendon, South Carolina and continued her education in Baltimore, Maryland.

In 1961, Betty gave birth to her first born daughter. In 1964 she married Hayward Gamble, Sr. and out of this union four daughters and one son.

Betty held several job positions in her lifetime. She worked very hard going to school and working to provide for her family . In 1977 she began working for Baltimore City Bureau of Revenue Collections

She began at an early level position and retired as a supervisor with over thirty years of service in June 2008.

Betty enjoyed life. Her hobbies consisted of cooking (especially soul food) reading, and fishing, traveling and gardening. She enjoyed watching classic movies and westerns. Her favorite shows to watch were “Perry Mason” and “Murder She Wrote” During her spare time she enjoyed nature, which included feeding birds.

She fought a good fight during her lengthy illness and departed this life on August 15, 2013. Her faith in God helped her to get through the rough times in her life. Betty was a warm-hearted, outgoing and outspoken person who would help anyone. She will be greatly missed and her absence will be keenly felt, but the memory of her will not be forgotten.

She leaves to cherish her memory, her children Kemma Jones, Darlinda Gamble, Hazel Gamble (Gene), Charlotte Gamble (Carlton), Hayward Gamble, Jr (Denise), 21 grandchildren 14 great grandchildren, two sisters, Ophelia Wormley, Sarah Chapman, two brothers, William Walker, James Walker (Barbara), special friends Margaret Conner, Darlene Campbell, and Mary Bracken, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, relatives, and friends

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 4yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!
