

Betty M. Hardee

May 1, 1943 - June 1, 2018

Betty M. Jefferson Hardee, age 75, was born May 1, 1943 in Baltimore, Maryland, the daughter of the late Horace and Mary Jefferson. She received her education in the Baltimore City Public School System.

As she journeyed through life, she worked at The Suburban Club, The Summit Country Club, Maryland Cup, and as a private home healthcare aide.

Anybody who knew her, knew her to collect owls, plants, and her other spare time was spent at the casino “up the road” as she called it. She had a feisty personality that everyone loved to be around. She loved caring for people in her own way, even if that meant cursing you out while feeding you. Betty was a stickler for cleanliness, structure, and her “own SPECIAL house rules”.

Betty was a truly loyal friend and devoted family member. She gave birth to two strong handsome sons, Damon Hardee who preceded her in death and Tyrus Turner who she leaves to mourn. In the morning hours of June 1, 2018, after a very short illness, God whispered “Come on Home, My Daughter”. Betty answered the call while at home surrounded by family and friends and is now resting peacefully with our Heavenly Father.

She leaves to cherish her loving memory: her son, Tyrus “Ty” Turner; daughter-in-love, Tameka “Meke” Turner; sister, Martha Hamlin; granddaughter, Jasmine “Jassy” Turner; step grandson, Elijah Robinson; a host of nieces and nephews; a few loyal friends, Dale “Girlfriend” Thomas, Mary Evans, Velma Thomas, Gale Carter; and neighbors.

“ So sorry that you lost your dear Betty. May prayers and words of encouragement help you to cope and strengthen you. An encouraging scripture is found at Isaiah 25:8 which let's us know that soon God will wipe away all tears and swallow up death forever. May your precious memories help you to go on.
