

Betty L. Henson-Price

April 20, 1953 - December 17, 2005

BETTY L. HENSON beloved daughter of the late Gladys Henson Green was born on April 20, 1953, and departed this life on December 17, 2005 after a brief illness. Betty was raised by two wonderful women, Nellie Jones and Grace Scott whom preceded her in death. Betty attended Baltimore City Schools, and later attended New Directions to further her education. Betty worked various jobs, but her most rewarding position was that of Receptionist/ Cook at the Chesapeake Center where she was loved by staff and students. They fondly called her Ms. B. Betty enjoyed helping people in her neighborhood and was known as “Bea Gaddy” of North Avenue. Betty enjoyed family gatherings and listening to oldies, but goodies. Although not an active church member Betty had a strong faith in God, and she read the bible, no matter what the circumstances she would read the 23rd Psalm. Betty met and married Clifton Price her husband of 26 years and from this union three sons were born Clifton III, Christopher, and Eric Price. Betty leaves to cherish her memory: her husband, Clifton Price Jr.; her daughter, Sherrie Johnson; her sons, Clifton, Christopher and Eric Price; two sisters, Helen Edwards, Rose Wells, one brother-in-law, Tyrone Wells; two daughters-in-law, Kathy Lewis and Angie Price; one son-in-law, Joel Johnson, Jr.; as well as a host of relatives, and a special friend David Lewis.
