“ Please accept my condolences for your dear loved one. Acts 24:15 lovingly declares "There is going to be a resurrection". May you receive much comfort and hope from this wonderful promise found in the Bible from Jehovah God and his only-begotten son Jesus Christ.(Psalm 83:18 and John 3:16)##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ *Mommy eventhough you are gone and I know you can't read this, but you brought the family together again. The life you lived, the lives you touched was to get us to this point. Everything reminds me of you in some way and I will never forget your smile, that sit your behind down look, and the lessons learned. Thank you and I will always love you. “ I would like to express my condolences to the Covington family. The loss of a loved one can be painful and difficult to bear, that's why the Bible calls death an "enemy." But, please be assured that God promises to do away with that enemy and all the pain it causes, according to 1Corinthians 15:26 and Revelation 21:4. Also, Daniel 12:2 encourages us to look forward to the resurrection, stating: "many of those asleep in the ground of dust will wake up." Yes, these are the promises of God, who cannot lie.-Titus 1:2. May you find comfort in your cherished memories and in God's Word of Truth, the Bible.##imported-begin##Valerie Johnson##imported-end##
