“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ Family, please accept my most sincere condolences for your loss. The death of a loved one affects our lives in a most profound way like no other event we experience. It cuts so deeply, and it's something no one should have to go through. Almighty God did not desire this for us. In fact he created the first man Adam to live forever in peace and security according to Genesis 1:26-28. That is still his purpose for us, and he sent us his precious son Jesus to make this possible. Jesus himself said at John 10:10, "I have come so that they might have life and have it in abundance." One day John 5: 28,29 tells us, "All those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." So our dead loved ones will live again." May the hope of seeing Betty again bring joy to your hearts, and help you to cope with her loss.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
