

Betty Jackson McKnight

January 7, 1952 - October 30, 2018

Betty Jane Jackson McKnight, daughter of the late Catherine Hood and the late William J. Thomas, was born on January 7, 1952, in Olney, Maryland, and was the eldest of her siblings. She departed this life on Tuesday, October 30, 2018, due to complications from a lengthy illness.

She was educated in Baltimore City Public Schools as well as Baltimore City Community College, in Maryland. Betty was a long-time federal employee, eventually retiring due to illness.

Early in life, Betty married the late Lowell E. Jackson, Sr., son of Viola Jackson, who played an integral role in Betty's faith and continuous role in her life. From the union of their marriage, Betty was a mother to five children. While raising her own children, she also found time to nurture and guide all those who crossed her path. In spite of many health challenges, Betty continued to live life to the fullest, and her grandchildren looked forward to hanging out and traveling with their "Grammy." Betty later remarried her long time love and travel partner, Sidney, in 2014. Her greatest gift was her love of, and devotion to, her family.

Betty leaves to mourn: her husband, Sidney R. McKnight; her three daughters, Linda L. Pierce, Donna D. Jackson, and Rita R. Jackson; her sons, Lowell E. Jackson Jr. and Tony E. Jackson; twelve grandchildren and three great-grandchildren as well as a host of aunts, uncles, cousins and friends, whom Betty also considered family.

“ To our family;
"To be absent from the body" is "to be present with The Lord." 2Cor 5:8.

We wanted her with us, but God wanted her more. We will miss her, but no more suffering or pain. Our love for her will never end as she rest in the arms of Jesus.

With love,

Dorothy and Myrick
