

Betty Jane Watson

September 9, 1942 - May 10, 2018

Betty was born in Chase City, VA to the late William H. and Lizzie Mae Watson. She joined Union Baptist Church at an early age and participated in children's activities.

The family relocated to Richmond, VA in 1957. Betty attended Graves Junior High School and Maggie Walker High School. She took secretarial courses after high school. Betty had a very strong and unwavering faith. She believed in the healing power of God, even after she became ill.

Betty leaves to cherish her memory: one brother, William H. Watson Jr. (Sarah) and one sister, Greta Evans, both of Richmond, VA; one niece, Bonita Evans of Richmond, VA, five nephews, John Bagley, Thomas Bagley, and William H. Watson III, all of Richmond, VA, Carnell Bagley (Sherri) of Freeman, VA and David Evans (Gwen) of Rock Hill, NY. She was predeceased by two sisters, Lela Watson and Willie Bagley, both of Richmond, VA and two brothers, Paul Watson of Orange, NJ and Harold Watson of Irvington, NJ and one nephew, Tyrone Watson of Richmond, VA. She also leaves many other relatives and friends to cherish her memory.

I am going to miss my Aunt, but hopefully we will meet again.

My Aunt Betty had a kind and gentle soul. Although she was a woman of few words, you could tell that she loved everyone. I remember how she was always so happy when my mom would return from visiting me a few days. Thank you Lord for placing Aunt Betty in my life, and for preparing a place for us all to rest in You until we meet again.
