

Betty A. Wyatt

December 29, 1952 - March 19, 2019

Betty Ann Wyatt, daughter of the late Donald and Viola Savoy was born on December 29, 1952 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this earthly journey on Tuesday, March 19, 2019 after a lengthy illness.

Betty was the second oldest of 6 children born to the union of Donald and Viola. She was raised up along with her siblings in the 500 block of Robert Street in Baltimore, Maryland. She attended Baltimore Public Schools, where she graduated from Frederick Douglas High School in 1970.

Betty worked at Genesis Healthcare for several years and volunteered at Graceland Park Elementary/Middle School for 5 years.

Betty Ann Wyatt was known for always speaking her mind and meant every word she said. She was the aunt in the family that had all the nieces and nephews over at any time and had no problem with correcting them when they were wrong. The correction of children did not just stop at family when you was over her house, she would even correct the neighborhood kids. She was known for this phrase "It Doesn't Matter".

Betty was preceded in death by two of her sisters Paulette Savoy and Pamela Savoy-Fulton.

Betty Ann Wyatt has left us with countless memories. Her spirit will continue to live on through her: significant other/husband, Jerry "Law Man" Powell Jr. who affectionately called her "Boo"; two sons James "Fruit" Chase, Robert "BoBo" Wyatt; two Daughters Darnesia "DiDi" Chase, Robin "Bird" Wyatt; two Daughter-in-laws Shawnta Chase and Desi Wyatt. Seventeen Grandchildren who called her "Nanny"; fourteen Great-Grandchildren. She also leaves with memories her: two brothers, Donald "Junior" Savoy Jr. and Anthony "Frog" Savoy; three sisters, Deborah Holton, Edwina "Stuff" Blackwell, and Catherine "Benjie" Brown; one brother in law James Fulton; one sister in law, Sylvia Jones-Savo

“ *To the Family,
At a time like this, reflection on the promises of Almighty God is very comforting. Like the promise at Isaiah 25:8 to swallow up death forever. May these thoughts encourage you during your time of bereavement. Our condolences to you and your family.*
