

Beulah Mae Barrett

September 11, 1927 - March 21, 2020

Born on September 11, 1927 to the late Willie and Viola Dixon in Fountain, NC. "Diva" earned her wings on March 21, 2020 to be with her late husband Jesse Earl Barrett, her daughter Michelle, and her son Jesse. Coming from a big family of eleven brothers and sisters, she was the last of the surviving two. She was a member of Greater New Hope Baptist Church. She worked over 20 years as one of the first African American female factory workers of the company where she met her late husband. She later retired, becoming a seamstress and spent her days leaving her legacy at every bingo hall she came across.

She loved her Bingo, snuff and being around her family and just being an all around diva. She enjoyed cooking and hosting Sunday dinners. Known as one of the best southern cooks in Maryland, you had to get there early to get a plate. All you had to bring was the 2 liter Pepsi and a big appetite. She was outspoken, loving and compassionate. Her home was open to anyone who needed it. She was one of a kind and the matriarch of our family.

She leaves to mourn two daughters, Evorn Best and Sherry Scott; two sons, James Dixon and Steven Barrett; wife, Nee-Nee; daughter-in-law, Dinah Barrett; sister, Mammie Dixon; and a host of grandkids, great grandki

“ Dear Granny 🙏🏾👩🏾👧👦💔🙏🏾
I've left this little text for you Granny
Just so you will know, I love you 🥰❤️💕 and miss you 🥺 more than you could know.
You were so caring so loving and so kind, and everywhere you went there was a rainbow 🌈 to find. You played a big part in my life and even though you're gone, The respect and love I have for you will just go and on #OurBigMomma #SIPGranny💔🙏🏾🥺
