“ My darling sweet big sister, how I miss the calls I could make to chat and laugh with you. How happy it made me when I knew you were on the other end. To hear you say I love you Phiney and I am praying for you and your family 🙏 It was a joy to be at the celebration of you and your friends at Shiloh on November 6th which Clover organized. It gave me my last opportunity to see, talk to and hug you and give you an early birthday present. More important to hear you with love, tears and happiness, except the cross trophy and certificates sent to you by Shiloh Baptist Church presented to you by your daughter Sheila. You spoke of your love for the Lord, your church and us your family in your words "for holding you up" You then thanked the Lord for everything He had done for you and it touched me dearly. You had no enemies, everyone loved you and I know you are resting in the arms of the Lord. Rest in perfect peace my sister! I love you dearly ❤️ Until we meet again I will always remember your kindness. God has prepared a home for you, a home not made by man.. No more pain or sorrow Beulah.. You truly earned your wings 🙏 Love Sister, Phiney
