“ I wish to express my sincere condolences at this most difficult time. Losing a loved one in death is so hard to come to grips with. At times it even feels unreal contemplating the fact that that person we loved so much is no longer with us. God definitely didnot want such pain and sorrow for his earthly children. We can look at the beautiful beginning he gave to Adam and Eve when he put them in the beautiful garden of eden, which helps us to see that he desired only the best for us. Unfortunately, they didnot appreciate God"s love, and so they sold us into sin and death. Yet because Jehovah is a loving father he took steps to undo the hurt they brought upon us. The bible tells us at 1st Cor 15:22, "fOR JUST AS IN ADAM ALL ARE DYING, SO ALSO IN THE CHRIST ALL WILL BE MADE ALIVE. Also John 3:16 says "For God loved the world so much that he gave his only-begotten son so that everyone exercising faith in him might not be destroyed, but have everlasting life." Jehovh has also promised a ressurection back to life for the dead, and he has furnished a gurrantee to all men by ressurecting Jesus from the dead. Acts 17,31. All of Jehovah"s promises are fulfilled through Christ Jesus our Lord. So as 1st John 4,8 shows: our God is love, and he shows this love to us in so many ways. One day through our ovedience and faith, we will see our loved ones come to life again. May you find much comfort in the ressurection hope to help you to cope with your loss.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ To the family, I offer my sincere sympathy. When we experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love, it pains us like no other. God's word, the Bible, offers us comfort. At John 5:28,29 he assures us that "all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." At John 17:3 he also tells us what we need to do to ensure we are witnesses of this great event. I offer you an opportunity to discuss these wonderful promises in detail. Please contact me.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##
