

Beulah Williams

January 5, 1911 - February 14, 2003

Beulah Green Williams was born January 5, 1911, the third child to the late Sam Green, Sr. and Mattie Thompson. She was born in Shulerville, South Carolina where she attended public school. Beulah accepted Jesus Christ as her Savior at an early age and joined Wesley African Methodist Church in Shulerville, South Carolina. In 1933, she moved to Baltimore, Maryland, where she met her beloved Johnny. She was joined in holy matrimony to the late John Williams, April 3, 1934. She then joined the Faith Baptist church Family and was an active member for over fifty years and dedicated herself to the choir and Golden Age Club. For forty-five years, Beulah Williams was employed as a lab assistant in the Research Department of Johns Hopkins Hospital and retired in 1973. Her favorite pastimes included nurturing her plants and flowers and chatting on the phone with her sisters, brothers and close friends hours at a time. Aunt Beulah, as she was affectionately called by her nieces and nephews, had a special love for sharing a good meal, family stories of the past and her sense of style. She possessed a jovial and loving spirit toward all she knew including her neighbors of the 2000 block of Kennedy Avenue. A Time To Mourn—"Peace I leave you; my peace I give you."- John 14:27 "Do not let your hearts be troubled."-John 14:1 To cherish her wonderful memory and words of wisdom: goddaughter, Zakia Mahasa; three sisters, Lucille Padgett of Shulerville, south Carolina, Oneada Manigault and Geneva Manigault of Baltimore, Maryland; four brothers, Sam and Wilton Green of Shulerville, South Carolina, Logan and Irvin Green of Baltimore,
