

Beulah Mae Williams

May 30, 1927 - June 5, 2013

BEULAH MAE WILLIAMS was fondly known as “Mommae” to her family and friends due to her warm and loving nature. She was born on May 30, 1927 to the late Whit and Susie Alston in Littleton, North Carolina.

Beulah was educated in the North Carolina Public School System. She later moved to Baltimore, Maryland where she obtained employment at Seton Catholic High School.

In later years, Beulah met and married the late Elijah Williams, Sr. and from this union, seven children were born: Alice, David, Elijah Jr., Sherman, Joanne, McKinley and Jerome.

Three sons: David, Elijah Jr. and Jerome Williams all preceded Beulah in death.

“Mommae” was a very lovable and out spoken person. She enjoyed watching soap operas, laughing, and spending time with her family members and friends.

On June 5, 2013, Beulah Mae Williams peacefully transitioned from labor to heavenly reward.

Beulah Mae Williams leaves to cherish her loving memory: two brothers, Robert Alston and James Edward Alston; two daughters, Alice Key and Joanne Bennett; two sons, Sherman Williams and McKinley Williams; three daughters-in-law, Darnell Williams, Cynthia Williams and Veronica Williams; one son-in-law, Parker Ray Key; friend, George Buntin; fourteen grandchildren, fifteen great-grandchildren, one great-great-grandchild; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends, including her dear friends, Sarah Johnson and Sharon Fenner.

“ To the Williams family:

I am sorry about the loss of your loved one; Mrs. Williams. May the memories of her help to ease your pain of sorrow.

Please remember that she is not suffering but is asleep in death waiting on Jesus promise at John 5:28 & 29.

I will keep your family in my thoughts & prayers.

Love,

*To Mrs. Alice Key and the Key Family,
I am writing to send my deepest condolences to you and to your entire family. Mrs. Key, I see the close and caring relationships share with your children, and I have experienced loved and care that you have lavished on me as a surrogate parent. So, I can sympathize with your and your family in the loss of one so important to you. Though no one but God can give you the peace which passes all understanding, please allow your family and friends hold you close and dry your tears at this time. Don't hesitate to share with, rely on, and confide in the the family and friends who love you best. Know that my prayers and the prayers of my family are with you during this difficult time. God bless you and I love you.*
