

Beverly Ann Carter

May 2, 1961 - May 9, 2017

Beverly Ann Carter, daughter of the late Nora Brandford and Walter Carter, was born on May 2, 1961, in Baltimore, MD . Beverly received her education in Baltimore City Public School system. She transitioned from time to eternity on May 9, 2017.

Beverly spent most of her time in South Baltimore where she grew up. She enjoyed hanging with friends and family at all the local hangouts, but you could always count on finding her at Jiggs Bar, outside laughing with friends. She was very well known in her community and always brought smiles and laughter to everyone she met. She had a personality that would warm your heart. Beverly loved to brag about her family and always spoke highly of all her brothers and sisters. She may not have seen them all the time but would never let anything bad be said about them.

Beverly was known for her comforting smile and charming personality, along with her long legs and big hair. Everybody wanted to hang with “Bev”. Oftentimes she would enjoy being out with her friends, but shied away from being the center of attention. Beverly will always be remembered as a true friend, wonderful sister, best grandmother, funniest aunt and great mother.

Beverly especially enjoyed spending time with her granddaughter, Nevaeh.

Everybody she met she talked about Nevaeh. The bond they shared was so special and sweet. It was almost like she felt like a kid again while spending time with Nevaeh.

She leaves to cherish their memories her only daughter, Shirleyta Carter; three sons Roy Browne, Michael Smallwood and Jahcobie Browne; one daughter-in-law Diana Browne; eight grandchildren, Nevaeh Peterson, Judah Browne, Isjiane Smallwood, Idera Smallwood; Iliyah Smallwood Michael Smallwood, Jr. Shamar Smallwod and Kyle Smallwood one great grandson, Nakoy; five sisters, Diane, Patricia, Saundra, Tia and Nora; Four brothers Walter, Rudolph, Gary, and Earl along with a host nieces, nephews, cousins and friends

“ I cannot believe this, I'm just finding this out. After 4 years. Beverly crossed my mind. And I began to look her up and this popped up. My heart is broken, we were like family , sisters, mrs shirley her mother , we grew up together.

We lived on sharp street, beverly on lendenhall . I'm just crushed. Lost for words, we lost contact with her after mrs shirley passed away. No one to let us know. A beautiful person. I'm so so sorry. May she rest in peace.

“ I will miss our almost daily phone calls. Everyone one at the BPD knew who you were. I would always get notes on my desk that your cousin Beverly called today. Fond memories of all of us running around as kids on Carroll street are still fresh in my mind. Rest In Peace Beverly your cousin Stanley (Scooter)
