“ I send my heartfelt condolences to the family of Beverly. Although some months have passed, I know the pain is still there, because we never forget our loved ones. We cherish their memory and remember the good times. Please family keep in mind that God promises a resurrection of the dead. one day BEverly will come to life again, and you have the promise of seeing her again. At John 11:25 Jesus made this powerful statement: "I am the resurrection and the life. "Everyone exercising faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." May the promise of the resurrection be a comfort to your hearts, and an anchor for your souls.###imported-begin###R Johnson###imported-end###

“ To the family and friends, I offer my condolences. It truly is unfortunate that we experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. May you find comfort and strength from the "God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4) who promises at Isaiah 66:13, "Like a man whom his own mother keeps comforting, so I myself shall keep comforting you people."###imported-begin###Gwen Winston###imported-end###

“ There will come a day when your tears of sorrow will softly flow into tears of remembrance... and your heart will begin to heal itself... and grieving will be interrupted by episodes of joy... and you will hear the whisper of hope. There will come a day when you will welcome the tears of remembrance... as a sunshower of the soul... a turning of the tide... a promise of peace. There will come a day when you will... risk loving... go on believing... and treasure the tears of remembering. I know this is a hard time for everyone but knowing Beverly she would want us to be happy she is in a better place and she is Happy and would want us to rejoice.##imported-begin##Sarah##imported-end##
