MISS ME, BUT LET ME GO

When I've come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little, but not too long
And not with your head bowed low,

Remember the love that we once shared
Miss me, but let me go.
For this is a journey we all must take
And each must go alone,
It's all a part of the Master's plan
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart
Go to the friends we know
And bury your sorrow in doing good deeds,
Miss me, but let me go.

“ *Dear family,
I am very sorry to read about the death of your loved one but do you think we will ever see our dead loved ones again?” At John 5:28, 29, in the Bible it explains and helps us to understand that we will see our loved ones again. For more information go to JW.ORG under the topic death.*

“ My sincere condolences to your family. Death of a loved one is never easy to deal with and our heavenly Father knows this very well. That is why he made this promise in his word the Holy Bible that very soon death will be swallowed up so that we will not experience that pain anymore. This is found your in Bible at Isaiah 25:8. His wonderful son, Jesus Christ not only promised that there will be a resurrection of those that died; (John 5:28, 29) but he also demonstrated it when he resurrected his dear friend Lazarus from death; (John Chapter 11).

I hope that during this difficult time these and other delightful promises from our heavenly Father bring some comfort to your family.

*Sincerely,

Please take comfort though in the fact that Almighty God Jehovah has not forgotten them. And, he knows the pain you are feeling right now. He has promised that one day all who are asleep in death will hear his voice and awaken. (John 5:28-29) This promise is made possible by means of His heavenly kingdom. You are invited to learn more about this and the many other promises Aug 1-3 at the "Keep Seeking First God's Kingdom" convention of Jehovah's Wittnesses.
