“ I send my deepest condolences to the family at this difficult time. Sadly, death hits all of us sooner or later, but it is something that we can never get used to. Noone wants to lose a loved one, and believe me, this pain and sorrow was never a part of God's purpose for us. Very soon untold blessings are going to come upon this earth. God promises a new world of peace in which such things as sickness, old=age, poverty, wars, crime, and death will be no more. At Rev 21:3-5 it lets us know that one day the tent of God will be with us, and he will wipe out every tear from our eyes, and pain, mourning, and death will be no more. Then he says, Look! I am making all things new." Soon Beverly and millions of others will be awakened from the sleep of death, because they will hear Jesus's voice and come out of the memorial tombs. John 5:28,29 May you be comforted by this wonderful hope.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. Acts 9:36-41 reports on the death of a woman who performed many "good deeds and acts of mercy". More importantly how thrilling it is that she was raised to life in that same account. This will be the case for many loving and generous women in the very near future. May you receive much comfort and strength from this wonderful resurrection hope found in the Bible.##imported-begin##Mrs. Sharon Hill##imported-end##
