

Beverly J. Johnson

August 3, 1946 - May 15, 2016

Beverly Jean Bullitt was born in Louisville, Kentucky on August 3, 1946 to George and Frances Bullitt.

She met and married Charles E. Johnson from Baltimore, Maryland. A marriage that lasted fifty-one years. They both believed their meeting was a blessing from the Lord.

Beverly graduated from Seneca High School in 1964.

Beverly worked for Quest Diagnostic until her retirement in 2012. She loved people and enjoyed interacting with them.

This quality endeared her to friends, family, co-workers and people she met as she journeyed through life. Beverly often took time through the years to take a mother's role when she encountered troubled youth. A number of them came back through the years and thanked her for taking the time with them.

She was preceded in death by: her one and only brother, George Bullitt Jr. and grandson, Charles A. Johnson.

Beverly leaves behind: two daughters, Sylvia Butler and Samone Johnson-Barnett; son-in-law, Eric Barnett; eight grandchildren, William, Dominique, Monique, Jaquetta, Marquise, Montaye, Rashawn and Beverlymae; ten greatgrandchildren, two sisters-in-law, two brothers-in-law; and a host of nephews and nieces.

Her journey ended on May 15, 2016 at approximately 10:30 p.m. due to a long, extensive illness. Her husband, Charles was at his lifelong love's side until the end. "So long sweetheart, until I join you, Love Charles."
