

Beverly Ann Mickles

October 8, 1956 - December 17, 2022

Beverly Ann Mickles daughter of the late Viola Mickles and John Henry Mickles, was born on October 8, 1956 in Baltimore, Maryland. Beverly departed her life and gained her wings on December 17, 2022 after a lengthy illness.

Beverly attended Dunbar High School until she graduated. She worked for the Baltimore City School System for many years.

Beverly spent her time taking care of others, making you laugh, playing spades, cooking and dancing. Beverly's personality was everything. One thing everybody knows is if she had something to say it was said. She was so funny it was never a dull moment when you were around her. She loved her family and friends.

Preceding her in death was her mother, Viola Mickles; father, John Henry Mickles; daughter, Lyndetta Mickles; and sister, Ellen Mickles.

Beverly leaves to mourn and cherish her memory: two daughters, Sharnetta and Latanya; one sister, Bertina; two brothers, James and John; two sisters-in-law, Alverta and Doniese; a long-time friend, Robert Grayson; four granddaughters, Kay'la, Shanay, Sharnetta and Shaniya; one grandson, Rodney; two great-grandsons, Isiah and Amari; two great granddaughters,

Jay'la and Londyn; one bonus daughter, Danielle and two bonus granddaughters, Chiya and Kenya; her favorite niece who she always called on Tatanisha; and a host of nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.
