

Beverly Singletary

September 18, 1961 - July 26, 2010

Beverly Singletary, daughter of the late Eugene Brunson and Gertrude Brunson, was born on September 18, 1961 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on July 26, 2010 after a fatal illness.

She received her education in the Baltimore City Public School System, which cumulated at Walbook High School. She lived in Manning, South Carolina for a number of years. She returned to Baltimore and continued to enjoy the many family and friends who cherished her thoughts, ideas and beliefs.

Beverly was a devoted grandmother who loved her children as well as her parents, Eugene and Gertrude Brunson. Through the many years of living on Brighton Street came so many wonderful, funny and interesting experiences that gave Beverly her quick wit, her “own” spin of what’s happening, and the unique ability to make you feel better, even in the worst of times.

With the oldest of her daughters, Adrienne preceding her younger sisters. She was married to Michael Singletary, and of this union three children were born, Michelle, Tina and Peaches.

She leaves to mourn: her mother, Gertrude Brunson; two sisters, Gertdell Granter and Barbara Jean Merritt; three daughters, Adrienne Ann Cofield, Latina Maria Singletary, Denise Demika Singletary and Michelle Lanette

Singletary, who preceded her in death; ten grandchildren, two aunts, an uncle, nieces, nephews, a host of other relatives and friends.
