“ Ronita, I would like to express my deepest sympathy to you and your family in the lost of your mother. The lost of a love one is away a difficult time. It is during these times our faith in God is questioned. And, ironically, it is during this time that our faith in God is greatly needed and strengthening. Through these hard times, it is always good to remember the wonderful times you have shared with your love one but, also remember to hold on to your faith and ask God to draw you closer to him. Keep in mind, small Blessings are a part of our daily lives.....##imported-begin##Monica N. Carter##imported-end##

“ To Sis. Ronita Wilson and Family: I was saddened to hear of the loss of your mother/ grandmother/ aunt/ etc. I understand that this is a very difficult time for you all, but want to encourage you to look to the Lord as the source of all your help, all your hope, all your strength, all your peace, and all of your comfort. Truly, there's no other help I know. We don't always understand why things are the way they are, but you can believe that God is still in control. In fact, I am reminded that God, who ordained this day, has with it, already made provisions as to how he will bring you through. God is faithful. He is able and will do all that He has promised. I pray that you will find strength in His Word, today. Some how, time talking to and listening to Jesus (by reading His Word) provides a certain peace that we just can't get from anybody or anything else. God is good to us. He will do just what He says. He will not leave His children comfortless. He will be with us always- even until the end of the world. Believe God! Much Love and Prayers##imported-begin##Yolanda Harrison##imported-end##

“ To the Family of Beverly Wilson: I would like to express my sincere condolences to the family and friends. It's at time like this that we need and seek comfort. The Bible can provide us with this needed comfort. In the Bible book of Job 14:14 asks this question: "If an able-bodied man dies can he live again?" The answer is found at Acts 24: 15, it reads, " ..that there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous". Yes, Almighty God, through his Son Jesus Christ will bring back our dearly beloved ones. I pray that you rely on God's many promises recorded in the Bible for strength to help you cope with your loss.##imported-begin##Denise King##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
