

Bianca Renata Sullivan

April 10, 1985 - September 12, 2011

On Monday, September 12, 2011, God called Bianca Renata Sullivan home to be with Him.

Bianca was born on April 10, 1985 to Michael Sullivan and Andrea Wicks. Affectionately known as “Boo” to some and “B” to others. She was and is a great inspiration to everyone who came into her presence.

She was baptized at an early age at New Bethlehem Freewill Baptist Church. She has been a lifetime member of the Dorcas Freewill Baptist Church.

Bianca graduated from Paul Laurence Dunbar High School where she was an outstanding scholar and athlete. She was a basketball star who played for the “Lady Poets” and helped lead them to many championships on the city, state and national levels.

She attended Morgan State University where she started her collegiate career. Due to her illness she transferred to Catonsville Community College where she graduated with her A.A. Degree in Accounting and was accepted at the University of Baltimore, majoring in Psychology.

Bianca loved to play basketball and absolutely loved the Baltimore Ravens. She enjoyed spending time with family and friends, giving advice and sharing her wisdom. Throughout Bianca’s illness, she was truly a soldier. She fought a good fight and never complained.

Bianca leaves to cherish her memory: her mother, Andrea Wicks; her father, Michael Sullivan; her grandparents, Clara T. Forby, Carolyn Gates and Bobby Sullivan; sisters, Briana, Shelbi, Mychele and Mikael; brother , Michael Jr. "Mj"; godson, Kiyon Rollins; her aunts, Denise, Cheryl, Theresa, Maria, Claudette and Dorothea; her uncles, Robert, Kevin, Derrick, two dedicated uncles, Thurman and Dean; two special friends, Tiara Myers and Lashai Lyles assisted with her care, her godparents, Sonnie and Lisa Hill-Price and Michael Wells. She also leaves to mourn: a host of cousins, other relatives and friends.

“ *Today is the day,
Today is the day that I laid you to rest,
God knows I love you and He knows what's best.
I will always LOVE YOU AND CHERISH YOU,
I even carry you in my HEART AND SPIRIT TOO.
We are anticipating a new addition to our family today
Marlee will be born and the Lord has made a way.
I Miss you so much sometimes I am lost in a maze
but I Love and Adore you AS ALWAYS!!!!
I must go now for I feel some tears flowing,
God is my COMFORTER and I am growing.
Love, Mommy*

“ Always loving you, Bianca. Life is not the same since you slipped away. I thank God for the precious memories and all the great times we had. As a niece, you left nothing to be desired. Always on point. A smile, a word, silence, a tear....you really knew what to bring to any situation. As a friend, you gave friendship a whole new meaning. I will always love you.

“ I know that your family is hurting right now. My heartfelt prayers go out to your family. God has promised through his son, he will call our family who has died, and they will hear his voice, and will come out. God can never lie. All of his promises comes true. Titus 1:2 and Joshua 23:14. Trust Him, and He will always be there for You!

“ i am so sorry to have read of this untimely loss. Hebrews chapter 4:11 tell us that the Bible has power to reach deep inside of us even to the marrow in our bones. tap into that power by reading His words of comfort and hope during your time of grief and deep sorrow. Jesus words at john 11:25 can be that comfort to you now. there he promises resurrection and life to those that have died. further comfort comes from the beautiful words found at Revelation 21:3,4 where the "God of all comfort" promises to wipe each and every tear that we shed. He promises and end to all of our pain. He promises the end of our sorrow and our outcries. He even promises an end to all DEATH. please read these comforting verses again and again to gain the strength and power that the Bible speaks of to help you to endure this pain that you feel right now. my deepest symapthies to the family and friends of B.
