

Bilan Amanda Bruce

December 27, 1982 - December 6, 2009

God wanted one more fragrant, beautiful, and vibrant flower in His eternal garden so He wisely chose Bilan Amanda Bruce to join Him. Born on December 27, 1982, she was selected to join believers on December 6, 2009. The only child of Phyllis and Abner Bruce, Bilan was a loving and devoted daughter, who enjoyed talking to her parents daily. She was a sensitive and adoring child, answering to "Pooh Bear" or "Baby" whenever she was called by her parents. Bilan attended Hanover County Public Schools, and was a 2001 graduate of Atlee High School. In addition, she studied Political Science at J. Sargeant Reynolds Community College. She accepted Christ at a young age and joined Cedar Street Baptist Church of God in 1991. Bilan attained the coveted Gold Award in Scouting. At the time of her demise, she was a leasing consultant with the General Services Corporation. Her favorite color was purple and she will wear this color as a royal heir in her Father's kingdom. Among her hobbies were reading and watching movies, but what she most enjoyed was making her parents proud of her. Cherishing memories of Bilan are her devoted parents, Phyllis and Abner Bruce; two grandmothers, Athalia Bland and Norma Bruce; seven aunts, one devoted, Karen Guadalupe (Jose) Gloria Green, Jackie McNeil (Lt. Col. Robert) Karen Lindsay (Warren), Carrie Bruce (Lt. Col. Dwight), and Facate Johnson (Lt. Col. Isaac), and Tychia Armstrong; two uncles, Norborn Bruce and Verneil Bland, Jr. A devoted cousin, Gwendolyn Jackson, and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ My heart and prayers are with you, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce, on the loss of Bilan. I had the joy of teaching her at Atlee in Marketing. She was a huge part in helping me adjust to Atlee and was one of my top competitors in DECA competition. She will always be thought of as one of my children and remembered for her smile and gentle manner. God bless you, your family, and her friends during this time of sorrow.##imported-begin##Jean Draper##imported-end##

“ Phyllis & Abner - Keith and I extend our deepest sympathy in the loss of Bilan. I know words alone cannot console your broken hearts and pray that our Father will wrap his arms around you both and give you the peace that only He can provide at this time. Know we are here if you need anything.##imported-begin##Keith & Sandy Witherspoon##imported-end##

“ To the family, I offer my sincere sympathy. I did not know Bilan but I know the sorrow and grief that comes with losing a loved one to death. Please be assured that very soon this sorrow will no longer exist. God promises that "death will be no more" (Rev 21:3,4) and He provides the resurrection hope (Acts 24:15) for those who have fallen asleep in death. As we await the wonderful fulfillment of this promise, may you continue to find comfort, not only in your precious memories, but also from, "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort who comforts us in all our tribulations." (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4)##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ The loss of a loved one is such a grievous time. To all that love Bilan, there is hope for her to recover from this brief time of sleep. God promised that there will be a resurrection and we can assured of seeing Bilan again. John 5:28 and 29.##imported-begin##J terry##imported-end##

“ My name is Jairo Mejia and I worked with Amanda everyday at GSC. I had the pleasure to talk to her everyday because of my job. She was a very nice and thoughtful young lady who will be missed. It hurt my heart to find out what happened to her. My deepest condolences to her friends and family.##imported-begin##Jairo Mejia##imported-end##
