

Billie T. Gant

July 21, 1930 - July 11, 2006

BILLIE THOMASENA GANT, daughter of the late Thomas and Cunnella Gant, was born July 21, 1930 in Rockingham County, North Carolina. On July 11, 2006, peacefully she went home to be with the Lord. She was preceded in death by her only brother, John Willie and one grandchild. Billie's elementary, middle and high school experience occurred in Reidsville, North Carolina. She was an exceptional student and as a result, graduated from Booker T. Washington High School with honors. She believed in education. Her motto was "You are never too old to learn". With that philosophy, and a passion for knowledge, she entered Morgan State University where she majored in Mental Health and earned her Bachelor's of Science Degree. At a very young age she was baptized at Galilee Holiness Church and accepted Jesus Christ as her personal Lord and Savior. Before her illness, Billie was employed as a drug counselor at the House of Ruth in Baltimore Maryland. From 1985-2004, she worked at the Baltimore City Detention Center as a librarian assistant. Billie lived a full and prosperous life. She took pride in cooking for her family. She loved to watch "western" movies, enjoyed curling up with a good book and listening to the Morgan State Choir. She leaves to cherish her memory: four daughters, Barbara Gant-Syndor, Deborah Gant, Patricia Adossi, and Denise Gant of Baltimore, Md.; one son-in-law, Koffi Adossi; eleven grandchildren; twenty-eight great- grandchildren; one sister-in-law, Frieda Jones of Reidsville, North Carolina; one niece, Delvern Shaw; one great-niece, Sydney Shaw of Greensboro, North Carolina and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ Please accept my condolences for your loss. First Corinthians 15:26 lovingly tells us about Almighty God's promise to destroy our enemy death. There is hope of our dead loved ones being restored to life with no more death, sickness, sorrow or pain. (Revelation 21:4) Acts 24:15 confirms this because it tells us - "there is going to be a resurrection". May you receive much comfort and strength as you reflect on these loving promises from the Bible.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Grandma Billie, I will always hold you near my heart. Even though I was not a biological grandchild you treated me as if I was. Watch over us all and be proud of your family. Love always##imported-begin##Janella##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ If there ever was a caring person it was you. If there ever was a more giving person, it was you. If there ever was a strong willed person it was you. If there ever was a person that i could call my BEST FRIEND, it was you. I THANK GOD for the time he loaned you to us. You touched so many lives with your words of encouragement. I miss you so much, but i know you are in a better place now. No matter who's path we cross in this life no one can ever take the place of a MOTHER! Exodus 20;12 Loving you always, Neicy###imported-begin##Denise Gant###imported-end##
