“ Mommy you taught me how to always take care of my brothers and sisters. I will continue to love and care for them. We will miss you so much. Every time I look at Tamara and Tyree I see the image of you. The last couple of days I spent with Aunt Shirley and she shared stories with me, how your were growing up. She told me you loved all of your children. I WILL CHERISH ALL OF OUR MEMORIES AND SHARE THEM WITH ALL MY BROTHERS AND SISTERS. I feel blessed to be the oldest daughter. Love Always,

“ I would like to extend my deepest sympathy for the loss of your love one. The Bible provides the greatest comfort & real hope during this time of grief. This real hope is the opportunity to see our loved ones again. John 5:28,29. Then our heavenly Father through his son Jesus will "swallow up" death forever. Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4.###imported-begin###Adrienne###imported-end##

“ Aunt blanche, you will be missed. It just seems so unbelievable, I just saw you. No matter where we are, I hear your voice and I say that's my aunt blanche. You still had that pretty smile and a eye full of tears, it was joyful tears of revising happiness. To all family this is a message for all of us. Let's stop taking for granted. As we take a breath today, we also can exhale tomorrow. ##imported-begin##Misha##imported-end##

“ A message from the one we lost! Death is nothing at all, I have only slipped into the next room. I am I and you are you Whatever we were to each other, that we are still. Call me by my old familiar name, Speak to me in the easy way which you always used. Put no difference in your tone, Wear no forced air of solemnity or sorrow. Laugh as we always laughed at the little jokes we enjoyed together. Play, smile, think of me, pray for me. Let my name be ever the household word that it always was, Let it be spoken without effect, without the trace of shadow on it. Life means all that it ever meant. It is the same as it ever was, there is unbroken continuity. Why should I be out of mind because I am out of sight? I am waiting for you, for an interval, somewhere very near, Just around the corner. “ My darling wife I love you with a love that could never be explained. I could only show you for all the time we were together that you were my whole life as we were so happy to have each other. I will always love you more than life itself, but we will be together again one day for all of eternity for we are joined together as one as God commanded and one day we will stand together as one side by side in God's realm of heaven where we will share of love once again. I would like to thank everyone, and I love you all Blanche's loving husband Kevin M. Franklin##imported-begin##Kevin M. Franklin##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences. I am sorry for your loss. The death of a loved one is such a painful time. This is a sorrow that Jehovah God promises will one day be no more (Revelation 21:3,4). As you await the fulfillment of this promise, may you find comfort from "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort who comforts us in all our tribulation" (2 Corinthians 1: 3,4).##imported-begin##S. “ I would like to express my sympathy to the Franklin famliy. When death separates us from our loved ones deep sorrow can result. Please be assured that "God cares for you" and the grief you may feel; that's why He promises to do away with death, pain, and tears, according to Isaiah 25:8, Revelation 21:4, 1Peter 5:7. Also, Daniel 12:2 encourages us with the resurrection hope by stating: "many of those asleep in the ground of dust will wake up." Yes, these are the promises of God, who cannot lie.-Titus 1:2. May your cherished memories and God's Word of Truth comfort your heart.##imported-begin##Valerie Johnson##imported-end##
