

Blanche Carter

October 1, 1928 - May 24, 2018

Blanche Carter peacefully and quietly left her earthly life and passed on to the arms of the Lord on May 24, 2018. Blanche was born on October 1, 1928 in Halifax, VA. She was one of twelve children of the late Andrew Jackson and Mary Elizabeth (Gerst) Faulkner.

Blanche received her education in the Halifax, VA public school system. She moved to Baltimore, MD in 1946 where she furthered her education at Carver Vocational for sewing. On December 23, 1950 she was united in holy matrimony to the late Chester A. Carter, from this union came three children.

Blanche was a faithful member of Perkin Square Baptist Church, where she served as a member on the usher board. Although she could not make it to all services as her health began to decline, she faithfully read the word of the Bible daily.

Blanche truly enjoyed reading the Bible, spending time with family and a good laugh. She found joy in being with her children and grandchildren. Blanche's laughter was contagious. She had a wonderful spirit and personality.

Blanche was preceded in death by her husband Chester A. Carter and son Stanley Carter. She leaves to cherish her memory: two daughters Sharon Henderson and Princess Carter, six grandchildren Charles Henderson (Joy), Ricky Henderson, Nicole Holden-Brooks (Matthew), Rodney Holden, Eddie Moore and Antonio Henderson-Gill, one sister Ruth Northern, 16 great-grandchildren, 25 great-great-grandchildren and a host of nieces and nephews.
