

Blanche E. Brown

January 8, 1922 - January 30, 2005

Blanche Elouise Veney Brown was born in Richmond County, Virginia, of the union between the late John Grealy Veney and Edmonnia Catherine (nee-Darby) Veney, on January 8, 1922 and was called home by our Heavenly Father on January 30, 2005. She attended Ebenezer Baptist Parochial School through junior high school in Virginia. She relocated to New York City in 1936, where upon she continued her education. At the start of World War II, she worked in several industries contributing to the war effort. During that period, she started her family. After the war she was employed in the publishing industry as a book binder until she relocated to Baltimore, Maryland in 1970 to be closer to her family. She embarked upon a new career in the nursing industry until she retired from the Sisters of the Good Shepherd, St. Joseph's retirement home for nuns. She was an avid reader and loved to cook. She had an extraordinary memory and a wonderful sense of humor. She will be greatly missed. She leaves to mourn: her children, Maudy Moore, Evelin Mendoza, Joette S. Brown, Joel Brown, Jeanette Brown (Esther Williams and Walter Edwards Jr. preceded her in death); Honorary mention - Carl Taylor, Eva Roberts and Martha Grier; eleven grandchildren, four great-grandchildren, one great-great-grandchild; daughter-in-law, Delores Edwards (predeceased son-in-law, Jesse Mendoza Sr.); sisters, Verneeda Viverette, Arlene Parks, Jeanner Allen (Mary Addams and Helen Robinson preceded her in death); Honorary mention - Christine Coachman, Dorothy Bynes and Martha Wagstaff; brother, Cornelius E. Veney (Christopher C. Veney and Melvin Veney Sr. preceded her in death); sisters-in-law, Clarice Veney, Merlene Veney (Pauline Veney preceded her in death); brothers-in-law, Charles Parks Sr., Levan Addams (William Viverette and John Robinson preceded her in death). There are also a myriad of nieces, nephews, and a host of other relatives and friends. Also mourning is her loving companion of thirty years, Fred Miller; and the extended Miller family.

“ Hello Family & Friends , I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at John 5:28,29 where Jesus says "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." May you be comforted by this scripture.##imported-begin##Sophia##imported-end##

“ To the Brown Family, I would like to express my deepest sympathy for our love one, to me,Aunt Sister. My heart ache with grief knowing she will be missed by us all. But I am over joyed knowing that she found peace. I have only great memories of Aunt Sister and still remember some of the excellent advise she offered us. She will be sorely missed. Love to all her friends and family. Niece Darlene Veney##imported-begin##C. Darlene Veney-McDonald##imported-end##
