

Blanche Mae Langley

July 25, 1914 - January 24, 2003

Blanche Mae Langley, daughter of the late Quixie Ann and Ernest Woods was born on July 25, 1914 in Morristown, Tennessee. She departed this life peacefully on January 24, 2003 after a brief illness. Her family moved from Tennessee to Baltimore where she resided most of her adult life in the Sandtown community. She was united in holy matrimony to Littleton S. Langley. They have been soulmates for over 50 years. Blanche had mastered the craft of canning and cooking southern meals. Her kind heart for helping others is what she is best remembered for. Her favorite past time was participating and enjoying friends in many senior excursions. Her passing will touch many hearts and lives. She leaves to mourn: husband, Littleton Langley; her family, on goddaughter, Mildred Elaine Franklin; granddaughter, Monica Clansy, and her husband, Rufus Clansy; three great granddaughters, Avery, Jasmine and Bianca; two sisters, Mary Carpenter and Leola Wills; cousins, Mary Coleman and Virgil Powell; loyal and dedicated friends, Mildred Wilson, Louise Brooks and Odessa Fisher; nephews, nieces, and a host of other relatives and friends.
