

Blondell Johnson

February 22, 1919 - September 12, 2007

Blondell Johnson, daughter of the late Talmadge and Nola Patrick, was born on February 22, 1919 in Winston, North Carolina. The Lord took Blondell home on September 12, 2007 after being sick for a short time. She was 88 years young. Blondell received her education at Winston Salem High School. She was also active in church and was baptized at the age of six years old. She married Percy G. Johnson on March 4, 1938 and they then moved to Baltimore in 1939 where her husband joined the Longshoreman Association. She then became a housewife and mother of five children. In 1980 Blondell's husband was bedridden along with having a stroke. He then passed away in 1982. Blondell joined the Waxter Center and became an artist. Her paintings were on display at the Mayor's office, the Governor's office and the Convention Center. Later on she joined a dance group called the "High Steppers", who performed on different occasions all over Baltimore City. She was well liked by all people, young and old. She was also known as the Lady On The Go. People said you might see Blondell anywhere at anytime. Blondell leaves to mourn; two sons, Melvin and Andre Johnson; daughter, Mamie Johnson Waugh; nephew, Antonio Patrick; six grandchildren, Angela, Eugene Jr., Beverly, Jeanette, Hope and Warren Jr., fourteen great-grandchildren and two great-great-grandchildren. She also leaves to mourn; an ex-daughter-in-law, Evelyn Johnson; future daughter-in-law, Barbara Jackson; a good friend, Bernard Harold, and lots of family and friends.

“ I would like to offer my sincere condolences to the family of Ms. Johnson. I too know the pain of losing someone you love, and felt that this scriptural thought at John chapter 5, verses 28, 29 would bring you as much comfort as it has me. There Jesus said that all those in the memorial tombs would, "hear his voice and come out." Yes, The Christ himself promises that we can see our dead loved ones again by means of the resurrection. I believe him and I am sure that you do too. Please feel free to contact me at the above address and again, I am truly sorry for your loss.##imported-begin##Kevin Jackson##imported-end##

“ I wish to extend my condolences to the family of Mrs. Johnson. The pain we feel when a loved one dies can be so overwhelming. Almighty God Jehovah is aware of the sorrow we go through, and that is why he sacrificed his dear Son Jesus, to do away with sickness and death for all time. At John 11:25 Jesus lovingly tells us, "I am the resurrection and the life. "Everyone exercising faith in me even though he dies, will come to life." One day through that promise, our loved ones will be made alive again, because of Jehovah's great love for us. May it comfort you to know that Blondell will soon live again in happier conditions.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow. The Holy Bible helps us to appreciate how Jesus feels for us when a loved one dies. John 11:35 tells us that Jesus cares for us during this time of our grief. Jesus also comforts us with the hope of a resurrection (see John 5:28,29). It is my hope that these words bring you comfort in the days ahead.##imported-begin##Mildred##imported-end##

“ My family and I offer our condolences to the family of Ms. Johnson. It truly is unfortunate that we experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. During this time and in the days to come, may you find comfort and strength from the "God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4) who promises at Isaiah 66:13, "Like a man whom his own mother keeps comforting, so I myself shall keep comforting you people."##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##
