

Blondine Anderson

April 22, 1936 - May 5, 2007

Blondine Anderson, daughter of the late Matthew and Jenny Dallas, was born on April 22, 1936 in Paxville, South Carolina. She departed this life on May 5, 2007. She received her education at Manning Training School in Manning, South Carolina. She left Paxville and went to Brooklyn, New York for a better life. In 1963, she moved to Baltimore to help take care of her ailing mother. She met and married John Anderson. She worked as a supervisor at both Memorial Stadium and the Kennedy Krieger Institute. She took an early retirement because of illness. She loved music, playing cards and cooking for family and friends. "Miss Blondie" as she was fondly known had a lot of friends. Her favorite time was the holidays and decorating with the children. Her favorite saying was "I can't believe the whole thing." Miss Blondie's home was open to everybody especially her nieces and nephews when they need a place to live. Miss Blondie leaves to mourn: her devoted husband, Mr. John Anderson; sister, Olivia Dallas; special niece, Janie May Dallas; four nieces, six nephews, six great-nieces, fifteen great-nephews, fifteen great-great-grand-nieces, twelve great-great-grand-nephews, four nieces-in-law, a nephew-in-law, a step-daughter, two step-grandsons, three brothers-in-law, two sisters-in-law, and a host of other relatives and friends. She also leaves four very special cousins, Mrs. Millie Scott of South Carolina, Mr. Herman Dallas of Dunn, North Carolina, Alvin Dallas of Chicago, Illinois and Mrs. Fairest Green of Tallahassee, Florida; and a very special friend, Mrs. Eula May Huff of Baltimore, Maryland.

“ To the family, I offer my sincere sympathy. When we experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love, it pains us like no other. God's Word, the Bible, offers us comfort. At John 5:28,29 he assures us that "all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." At John 17:3 he also tells us what we need to do to ensure we are witnesses of this great event. I offer you an opportunity to discuss these wonderful promises in detail. Please contact me.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Dear family, please accept my condolences for your loss. One day all sickness and death will be wiped away from the earth, because the bible promises at Rev 21:3-5, "Look! The tent of God is with mankind, and he will reside with them, and God himself will be with them."And he will wipe every tear from their eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. "The former things have passed away." Then Acts 24:15 lets us know that there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous." I hope these promises from Jehovah God, as well as the future joy of being reunited with your loved one again, comforts you in the days ahead.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ My condolences I am sending your way.May 05,2007 broke the circle of life for the Anderson family. I hope knowing that others cares help. I have lost many loved ones in death and know that by means of the comfort from our heavenly father we will remain firm in our faith. There are so many things to do in life that death stop.Imagine the happiness that will result when loved ones are resurrected. I am looking forward to that happening in the near future. May all the happy times shared with Ms.Blondine stay close.##imported-begin##Lillian Crosby##imported-end##

“ To the family and friends: Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. God’s original purpose was not for us to ever die. The thought of death is heartwrenching to us and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to death. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Just imagine our loved one coming back to life in the most beautiful earthly paradise you could ever imagine! Wouldn’t it be wonderful to greet them, tears of joy running down your faces and knowing that you will never lose them in death again. Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at (Rev. 21: 3-5) of a new earth where there will be no more death. These promises have brought comfort to millions. I wish the same for you.##imported-begin##sorry2 hear##imported-end##
