

Bobbie A. Cottman

August 31, 1944 - November 3, 2013

BOBBIE ANN COTTMAN was born on August 31, 1944 to James Allen and Carrie Stewart (deceased). She was one of ten children (one brother, Charles Stewart, preceded her in death). She peacefully slipped away to be with the Lord on Sunday, November 3, 2013.

“Barb,” as she was affectionately called, accepted Christ as her personal Savior at an early age. She was baptized at New Pilgrim Baptist Church where she faithfully served alongside her mother Carrie Stewart for many years. You would more than likely see her and her mom together, for they were best friends.

Barbara attended Paul Laurence Dunbar High School from which she graduated. She later went on to college and received a degree as a Registered Nurse. She met and married Herman Butler (deceased); and from that union one son was born, Keith A. Butler. On June 11, 1977 she married her long time friend John E. Cottman.

After several years of taking care of the sick at numerous facilities, she retired from FutureCare Nursing Home. Barbara loved to travel and once she retired was always on the go, whether it was a shopping trip, traveling with the Oliver Center, with her church family or on a cruise.

Barbara leaves to cherish her memory: her son, Keith A. Butler; granddaughter, Nikaya Butler; great-granddaughter, Isis Gilford; great-grandson, Keith Shaun Butler; seven sisters, Willa Mae Starks (Michael), Shirley Green (John), Tommie Green, Kery L. Stewart, Brenda Smith (Oliver) and Phyllis Lyles (Cedric); two brothers, James A. Stewart Jr. (Gayle) and Ronald Stewart (Barbara); several nieces, nephews, cousins, aunts, uncles, a host of other relatives and dear friends.

“ Our family would like to express our condolences to your family. May you find comfort from Jehovah God's Word The Bible. He assures us at 1 Corinthians 15:26 that "the last enemy death will be brought to nothing." Our prayers are with your family.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 4yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!
