“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. The Bible rightly calls death our enemy. (1 Corinthians 15:26) That same verse reveals that death will be destroyed one day. There is much hope for our dead loved ones. Acts 24:15 declares- "...there is going to be a resurrection.." May you receive much comfort and strength from friends, family and the many loving promises found in the Bible.##imported-begin##S. Hill##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ I am so very sorry for your loss. May Jehovah God give you the comfort you need to see you through the days ahead. Unfortunately, sickness and death is something we can not do anything about, but our loving heavenly father has the power to end sickness and death, and he has promised to do so. At Isaiah 33:24 one day, "No resident will say, 'I AM SICK.' Also Isaiah 25:8 says that "He will actually swallow up death forever, and certainly wipe the tears from all faces." I know that words cannot erase your pain, but please remember that God's words can be a healing, because one day we will see their fulfillment when our loved ones come back to life. Take care.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ I was sorry to learn about the death of Bobby. This must have been a difficult time for all of you. I'm forwarding scripture that will comfort you. Psalm 90:10 says that the usual human life span is 70 or 80 years. This was true when Moses wrote it but not so from the beginning. (compare Genesis 5:3-32.) Hebrew 9:27 says...It is reserved for men to die once for all time. This, too, was true when it was written but not the case before God passed judgement on sinful Adam.##imported-begin##JT Nunnally##imported-end##
