

Bobby Lee Johnson

March 17, 1943 - May 25, 2014

Bobby Lee Johnson slipped into eternal rest on May 25, 2014. He was born on March 17, 1943 to the late Vernelle Johnson and Harvey L. Johnson Jr. He was raised by his late aunt, Mrs. Emma Tyler.

He was baptized and became a member at the Quioccasin Baptist Church in Henrico County, early in his life. He later became an usher at First Union Baptist Church presently on Dill Road under the late Reverend Henderson. Bobby was educated through the Henrico County School System and attended Vandervall Elementary School and Virginia Randolph High School.

He loved art, baseball and his yellow truck. He had developed an interest in the old Negro Baseball Leagues. Bobby was also a devoted Redskins' fan.

Bobby was employed by Pitts Iron Metal, St. Mary's Hospital and Philip Morris. He worked for St. Mary's Hospital for twenty years and Philip Morris as a pronto operator on Commerce Road and retired in 2004 after 30 years.

He was a very loving, compassionate and giving person who cherished his time with his family.

Bobby leaves to cherish his memory to a loving wife of 40 years, Pearlle Johnson; a loving daughter and son, Melody V. and Rajoh A. Johnson, both devoted to their father during his illness. From his previous marriage to Vernice B. Johnson; sons, Bobby Rydell Johnson (Carol), Rodney Anthony Johnson (Adrienne), and Bruce Lawton Johnson (Sherese), grandchildren, Nakisha Stovall, Sekoria Johnson, Ciara Johnson, Rodney Johnson Jr., Javonte Johnson; Ireynna Johnson and Isaiah Johnson; great-grandchildren, Asiana Stovall and A'jon Orange; and a host of other relatives and friends. God bless you and keep you until we meet again.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. Hopefully, the many fine memories that you have made with Bobby will be the very ones that will bring you the comfort that you need during this difficult time. You can also turn to our loving Heavenly Father because he is the "God of all comfort" and he can and will help you through this because "he cares for you." (1 Peter 5:7)

“ My heartfelt condolences to the Johnson family. The death of a dear loved one is so hard to bear. Knowing this, our loving merciful Father gave his Word to end death, pain and suffering. His love will strengthen you to endure the loss of your dear loved one. Revelation 21: 4, 5.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 5yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!
