

Bobby Jones Kenyon, Sr.

May 17, 1940 - November 22, 2016

Bobby Jones Kenyon Sr., affectionately known as "Red," was born to the late Herbert Kenyon and Annie E. Evans on May 17, 1940 in Creedmoor, NC. He succumbed to a lengthy illness on November 22, 2016 peacefully and entered into eternal rest.

He preceded in death by his eight brothers, Freddie Lee, Eugene, Leamon, John Edward, Herbert, Ezekiel, Clyde, Jimmy; and one sister, Aretha (Bunchie).

Bobby received his education from G.C. Hawley High and attended Greenville Baptist Church, both located in Creedmoor, NC. He later moved to New York where he began his passion for roofing and was employed with Herman's Roofing Company in Pound Ridge, NY for many years until he relocated to Baltimore, Maryland. Bobby continued working as a roofer until retirement.

He was united in holy matrimony to Alma Mae Woodbury, who preceded him in death, and to this union they were blessed with one son, Bobby Kenyon Jr.

Bobby enjoyed spending time with his family. He loved his brothers and was excited when they came to Baltimore to visit. He enjoyed driving tractor trailer trucks, reading the comics on Sunday morning with his cup of coffee and was an avid fan of the Law and Order TV show.

Bobby was a staple in the neighborhood. He was well-liked and respected. He had a sweet soul and was known for his sense of humor. He was also kind-hearted and helped anyone that needed assistance.

Bobby had a special kinship with his cousin. "Lee." Lovingly, they took care of each other for sixteen years. They watched old western movies together, reminisced about the family "good old days" and shared a close bond with each other-that will TRULY be missed. He loved his younger cousins and had a special bond with his cousin, Shelbe-whom he sometimes called his daughter.

In departing he leaves to mourn: his son, Bobby Kenyon Jr,; one grandson, Devian Alexander Kenyon; three brothers, ,Charlie Kenyon (Margaret) of Oxford, NC Roscoe Kenyon of Mount Vernon NY, Leonard Lee Kenyon (Doris) of Oxford, NC; and a host of loving cousin, nieces, nephews and relatives and friends.
