

Bobby Lionel Benbow

November 9, 1933 - February 14, 2009

BOBBY BENBOW was the son of the late Mr. Ed and Mrs. Eliza McBride Benbow, born in Clarendon County, South Carolina, November 9, 1933. He departed this life entering into eternal rest on Friday, February 14, 2009 at his home in Baltimore, Maryland. As one of eight children, he attended his formal education in the public schools of Clarendon County, after which he briefly relocated to Florida, Chicago, and finally settling in Baltimore, Md. where he worked digging tunnels until retirement. Bobby, as everyone called him, was a God-fearing man who lived his life serving and helping others according to the word of God. He always said, "I ain't got much, but if I can help I will," He always had advice for those who needed prayer; he would tell others that "The best time to pray to God was before sunrise," guaranteed to get an answer from God if you follow his instruction. He would say, "Not an answer when you want it, but when God gives it to you." Bobby was a gentle and soft-spoken person. He was loved by all who came in contact with him and could make you cry with laughter. A shallow river that ran deep, he believed that if you don't run after the train there will be no pain; in other words, "Enjoy Life." Not only a beloved father, brother, uncle, and friends, his passing leaves to mourn: daughter, Barbara Wilson of Naples, Fla.; two sons, John Edward (Ann) McBride of Miami, Fla. And Reggie Benbow of Baltimore, Watson of Ocala, Fla.; two sisters-in-law, Roselee and Barbara Benbow; seven grandchildren and a host of nieces, nephews, loving neighbors, other relatives and friends.

Tribute Wall

“ Bobby Lionel Benbow

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. 1 Corinthians 15:26 rightly calls death our "enemy" and death itself will be "destroyed". Also, Acts 24:15 informs us "there is going to be a resurrection". May you receive much comfort and strength from the Bible's hope of your loved one being restored to life.##imported-begin##Mrs. Sharon Hill##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ I am so sorry for the loss of your loved one. The Bible encourages us to throw our burden upon Jehovah himself and he will sustain you (Psalm55:22). The Bible also teaches that the dead will live again. Jesus himself said: "I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life (John11:25). Continue to draw close to the God of all comfort (2Cor1:3-4) and he will help you. warm regards, C. Murphy##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ I am very sorry for your loss. I hope this scripture will give you much comfort. Revelation chapter 21:4, "and he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning, nor outcry, nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." Sincerely, C. Bain###imported-begin##Charlotte Bain###imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM