

Bobby Ray Anderson

April 11, 1970 - June 8, 2005

Bobby Ray Anderson Jr., was born on April 11, 1970 to Rosalind Brown and Bobby Ray Anderson Sr. He departed this life on June 8, 2005. Bobby attended Baltimore City Public Schools where he received his formal education, graduating with his diploma from Edmondson High School; however it was his knowledge of business and his desire to “have his own” that gave him his best exposure to life. Bobby explored opportunities in many occupations, but found that nothing was fulfilling. As a result, he followed his heart and put his entrepreneurial talents to work. Bobby discovered that he had a unique gift. During his partnership with Steve and Michelle Samuel of the “Just for You Flowers” flower shop, Bobby aided in building a wireless communications empire called, “The Phone Spot”. Success was always on Bobby’s side. He maintained the ability to take an idea and spin it into a thriving operation. Bobby had the luck of “King Midas”. Everything he touched turned to “gold”. Bobby played as hard as he worked. He loved to shoot pool, feed his face, travel, and bring a smile to the face of all of those who loved him. Bobby leaves to mourn, his devoted wife, Danielle Anderson, mother, Rosalind Brown; father, Bobby Sr.; mother and father-in-law, Cheryl and Henry Greenway; daughters, Tiara, Terresa, Ciara and Ray Kiara; sons, Angel and Carlos; grandmother, Elnora Smith; brothers, Jamal, Jesse, Arnold and Clarence; sisters, Evelyn (LADY), Stephanie, Ashley; one great aunt, Evelyn Holland; nieces, Tyron, Jamara and Jemera; nephews, Desmond and Jamar Jr., along with a host of aunts, uncles, cousins and the special cousin Marcell

Smith.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow, know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. May you cherish his memory. The Bible has words of comfort at 1 Corinthians 15:26 which states, "As the last enemy, death is to be brought to nothing." God has promised to do away with death and the pain that it causes. May these words be of comfort to the family.##imported-begin##Sean##imported-end##

“ My husband and I would like to express our deepest sympathy for your loss. The Bible helps us to appreciate how Jesus feels for us when a loved one dies. John 11:35 tells us that Jesus gave way to tears upon learning of the death of his friend Lazarus. This gives us assurance that Jesus cares for you during this time of your grief. Jesus also comforts us with the hope of a resurrection. (see John 5:28,29)##imported-begin##Sean##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere condolences during this time of your loss. May you find comfort in knowing that God is near to those broken at heart and those crushed in spirit he saves." (see Psalm 34:18) Isn't this a comforting thought? please find comfort in the Bible's message.##imported-begin##Mildred##imported-end##

“ To the family and friends: Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. God’s original purpose was not for us to ever die. The thought of death is heartwrenching to us and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to death. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Just imagine our loved one coming back to life in the most beautiful earthly paradise you could ever imagine! Wouldn’t it be wonderful to greet them, tears of joy running down your faces and knowing that you will never lose them in death again. Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at (Rev. 21: 3-5) of a new earth where there will be no more death. These promises have brought comfort to millions. I wish the same for you.##imported-begin##sorry2 hear##imported-end##
