“ I will surely miss him! My dad, (Matthew Roberts) & I would visit him several times throughout the year to check in on him and Vanessa. He was the sweetest, most thoughtful, jovial man.. and quick witted too!! It was Always such a blessing to hear his stories. He often spoke of his childhood in South Carolina with Grandma Mattie and his dad, of sharecropping, of his years working as a mechanic & his admiration for fishing and hunting. (He had this giant buck's head in his living room to prove his marksmanship). Those memories were treasures he carried and sharing them was a true gift to us both.

Though he will be dearly missed, there is a comfort in knowing he is at peace in the Lord's presence. We pray that God's love surrounds our family and that His grace brings us all strength and comfort in the days ahead.
